

The information provided on this website by Sparksman Transportation Ltd. (“Company”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) is for general informational purposes only. By scheduling a charter trip, you acknowledge and agree to the terms of this Disclaimer.

1. Charter Transportation Services

Our Company provides charter transportation services to organized groups, institutions, and private clients. While we strive to operate safely and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, transportation involves inherent risks that cannot be eliminated.

2. Client and Supervisor Responsibility

For all charter services involving groups, including those with minors, the Company requires designated adult supervisors, organizers, teachers, chaperons, parents, guardians, or other responsible adults (“Supervising Adults”) to maintain responsibility for the conduct, supervision, and safety compliance of their group members while on board Company vehicles.

Supervising Adults are responsible for:

- Providing the Company with a full passenger manifest prior to the start of the Charter trip, which must include the ages of all children under sixteen (16) years of age.
- Providing and installing booster seats and/or child car seats that adhere to the provincial laws.
- Ensuring all passengers under the age of sixteen (16) remain seated and are always wearing their seatbelts until the vehicle arrives at its destination and is safely parked.
- All adult passengers comply with applicable seatbelt laws and Company safety policies.
- Passengers comply with all safety instructions provided by the driver or Company personnel.
- Ensuring passenger behavior does not interfere with the safe operation of the vehicle.

3. Limitation of Responsibility

The Company shall not be responsible for injuries, damages, or losses resulting from:

- Failure of Supervising Adults to adequately supervise minors or group members.
- Failure of passengers to wear seatbelts or follow safety instructions.
- Passenger misconduct, negligence, or non-compliance with safety or legal requirements.
